THE

SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freshest Advices, Foreign and Domestick.

Monday, August 4th, 1746. [Numb. 645.]

Mr. Timothy,

Your inserting the inclosed in your next Gazette, may perhaps set some abler Pen to work on the same Subject, or give a Hint to our Legislators to exert themselves in the present Conjuncture, to wipe off the scandalous Aspersion of Disloyalty cast on the Province some Years since by our ungenerous Neighbour DON QUIXOTE, and will at the same Time oblige one of

Your constant Readers,

Port-Royal, July the 26th, 1746. Publicola.

AS we are already in Possession of Cape-Breton, and have drove the French from most of their Settlements on Newfoundland, and the Acquisition of Quebec would make us compleatly Masters of all the French King's Dominions on the River St Laurence, and put the Fur Trade of those Parts (which is very considerable) into our Power, besides leaving us without a Rival in the Cod Fishery on the Banks of Newfoundland, the vast Importance of which to Great Britain, as a trading Nation, whose chief Dependance is her Naval Strength, will hardly need Explanation, as it must be obvious to every Man who is any ways acquainted with Trade. As his Majesty has already sent a powerful Fleet, with Directions to the Governors of the Northern Colonies to raise Land Forces for an Expedition against that Place, with which they seem so readily to concur; I think it is the Duty of every English Subject who has the Interest of his Country at Heart, to contribute all in his Power to promote an Undertaking where there is so fair a Prospect of Success, which will be attended with so many Advantages to the British Nation in general, and of which his Majesty's Subjects in America may very probably reap the good Fruits. And as his Majesty has been so tender of his Carolina Subjects, (probably in Regard to our Poverty) not to require any Assistance from us in this Affair, I think it the more incumbent on us to offer our Mite, at least to shew our good Inclinations; and would therefore humbly propose, That One Thousand Barrels of Rice be purchased and transported to Cape-Breton at the Expence of this Province, for the Use of the Forces to be employ'd in this Expedition. I am assur'd by a Merchant well vers'd in Trade, that at the Rate Rice now sells, this might be done for One Thousand Pounds Sterling; but should it cost twice as much, I am pretty sure no reasonable Man would think much of the Expence to get rid of so troublesome a Neighbour, whose Intrigues with the Indians affect even us, tho' at so great a Distance. This will undoubtedly be an acceptable Offering, and very agreeable as well as wholesome Food for the Garison that may be left to winter in that cold uncomfortable Country, and will appear in a better Light, as coming unask'd, as well as unexpected, and from a People whose deplorable Circumstances are (I'm afraid) too notorious; 'twill however be like the Widow's Offering, the more acceptable for the Poverty of the Givers; 'twill shew that we are well affected to his Majesty and the present Government; and perhaps be Inducement (on Account of our Loyal Poverty) to get the Enumeration taken off from our Commodities, the only Thing which (if Indigo fails) can enable us to keep our Heads above Water during the present War.

LONDON, March 22.

THEY write from Turin, that 90,000 Livres have fallen into the Hands of the Vaudois, which the French Commandant at Asti had sent from thence, for Security, just before the Place was invested by the Piedmontese.

The taking the above Place cost the Piedmontese but 3 Officers and 30 Men. Upwards of 330 French Officers were made Prisoners, amongst which are M. de Montal, Lieutenant-General; Messrs. de Choisiul and de Mesple, Field Marshals; and M. de Montmorency with the Duke d'Agenois, Brigadiers.

By these Letters it appears, the Count de Tana, with a small Body of Piedmontese, has taken the Castle of Guesto; while M. de Senay, with the Militia of Pignerol, had made himself Master of that Castel fiert; at both which Places they made many Prisoners.

March 25. They write from Vienna, that Field Marshal Traun is declared Captain General of Moravia, and that his Excellency will reside at Brinn, in order to have his Eye on Bohemia, Silesia, and the other Frontier Provinces, and that General Count Bernt is to go very speedily with the Character of their Imperial Majesty's Embassador Extraordinary to the Court of Berlin.

On Thursday the 13th, the Salisb and Warren Privateers fell in with a French Fleet of 30 small Vessels, near Port Louis, laden with Stores, and Timber for Ship building, under a Convoy of 10 Guns, which they attack'd with such Success, that they have brought away 4 of the Storeships and the Convoy, and drove 16 others ashore, 2 of which they burnt, as they would have done the Rest, but a large Man of War coming out of the Port, they were oblig'd to sheer off with their Prizes. [Lond. Gaz.]

March 27. The John, Knadle, is arrived at Cowes, in 53 Days from South Carolina, notwithstanding she had no other than her Fore and Jury Mizenmast a Fortnight after she left that Place.

The Garland and London Privateers, have taken and carried into Lisbon, a Ship of 20 Guns, from France bound to Guinea; and, after an Engagement of 2 Hours, La Voltoire, of 36 Guns and 150 Men, Capt. Plasseliere, bound from Cape Francois to Port Louis in France; she has on board 110 Chests of Dollars, and other valuable Effects.

March 29. They write from Milan, that the Austrian Generals have published a Proclamation, in the Name of the Empress Queen, requiring all such as have hitherto sworn Allegiance to her Majesty, to return to their Duty, under Pain of being treated as Rebels and Traitors, and exposed to all the Severities of military Execution.

The Royal Residence of Chambord, with the Lands belonging to it, of which the French lately made a Present to Marshal Saxe, are esteemed worth 40,000 Livres, or near 2000 l. Sterling per Ann.

April 3. The Spanish Ministers at the Court of Versailles charge M. Maillebois with all the Misfortunes that have attended the Allies in Italy, and not only insist on his being recall'd from thence; but upon his being call'd to Account also for his bad Behaviour while he had that Command.

The Spaniards in Italy are so irritated against this General and his whole Nation, that they refused to admit three French Battalions into Tortona, which was the true Reason that M. Maillebois thought fit to retire to Novi, in order to wait there for the Succours he expects from France.

Twelve Pieces of Cannon, 12 Pounders, are order'd to Carlisle, to put that Castle and City in a Posture of Defence; and several Engineers are gone down there for that Purpose.

April 8. From Malaga of the 8th of March, we have Advice, that Vice-Admiral Medley sail'd from thence on the 5th, with a Squadron of 15 Ships of the Line, with Fireships, &c. and it was thought he intended to look into Carthagena, to see what the Spaniards are doing there.

April 12. We hear, that the Dolb's Galley, and California, will be ready to sail the latter End of this Month; in Search of the North-West Passage thro' Hudson's Straights.

On

On Tuesday was launched at Chatham, the Duke William (so called in Honour to his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, a new Man of War of 50 Guns, and the Command of her given to Capt. James Gregory, an experienc'd Commander.

April 15. It is ſaid, that the Money taken on board the Hazard Snow, has, by his Royal Highneſs the Duke's Order, been diſtributed, viz 500 l to Capt. Mackay, who ſeized her, 500 l to the Commander of the Sheerneſs Man of War, that forc'd her aſhore, and in proportion to the other Officers; and that the reſt was diſtributed to the Crew of the Sheerneſs and Capt. Mackay's Men, which amounted to 5 Guineas each Man.

It is reported, that a Perſon of Diſtinction has been here for ſome Days, with a Commiſſion of Importance from a certain Court.

We are inform'd, that the Right Honourable the Lords of the Admiralty were pleaſed Yeſterday to ſend for Admiral ——, at which Time their Lordſhips ſtruck his Name off the Liſt of Admirals.

April 19. We are aſſured by good Letters from the Hague, that the Naval Armament at Breſt goes on with the utmoſt Vigour, and conſiderably encreaſes every Day; and that they were in ſuch Forwardneſs, as to be ſoon able to put to Sea, where they were to be joined by the Ferrol Squadron, and the Ship with the Swediſh Officers from Gottenburgh: And, by all Accounts, the Quantity of Arms, Ammunition, Men and Money, that is put on board all theſe Ships, is amazing. The Pretender's youngeſt Son, 'tis ſaid, is alſo to go on board, and that they are to ſail for ſome Part of Great Britain; tho' 'twas the general Opinion at Breſt, that they were bound for Ireland; but, be that as it will, 'tis certain, by all Circumſtances, and the Number of ſmall Veſſels that attend them, that they cannot be bound for any long Voyage; and they give out, that they defy any Engliſh Squadron's attempting to moleſt them.

April 22 We are aſſured, that the King of Pruſſia is determined to redreſs the Grievances of the Proteſtants in Poland; and to ſupport them in their Rights agreeable to the Treaty of Oliva.

The Riſing Sun, Serjeant, from South Carolina, is taken by the French, and carried into Bayonne.

April 26 We are well aſſured, that a Gold Box is making, with the City of London's Coat of Arms finely emboſs'd on it, to be preſented, with the Freedom of the City, to his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, on his Arrival, by the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Court of Aldermen and Common Council.

His Majeſty was pleaſed to make a Preſent of 1000 Guineas and a Colonel's Commiſſion to Lord Bury, for bringing the agreeable News of the Defeat of the Rebels in Scotland.

By the laſt Advices our Correſpondent in Holland received from Verſailles it was not thought at all improbable, that the King might haſten his Journey to the Army, for which many Reaſons were aſſigned, and amongſt them theſe; that the bad News from Italy made it abſolutely neceſſary for his Majeſty to exert his Superiority in the Low Countries, to reſtore the Reputation of the Arms of France; that by forcing the Lines which cover Antwerp, the Territories of the United Provinces would lie expoſed in ſuch a Manner, as to drive down the bitter Draught of a Neutrality, however unpleaſant; and that if Things were at all delayed, the Army of the Allies might become numerous enough to put a Stop to further Conqueſts.

From Bruſſels they write, that the French are incredibly diligent in fortifying that Capital, and in erecting ſo many new Works, that it will require at leaſt 80,000 Men to inveſt it; that for this Purpoſe they have lately demanded 3000 Workmen more from the States of Brabant; that they have already finiſh'd a double cover'd Way that goes all round the Place, and Two very ſtrong Redoubts before the Gates of Louvain and Namur. They add, that no Doubt was made that Campaign would be opened by a Battle, to make Way for the Siege of Antwerp.

On Tueſday there arrived an Expreſs at Portſmouth, from Guernſey, which gave an Account of the ſailing of the Breſt Squadron, conſiſting of near 30 Men of War.

CHARLES TOWN, August 4.

Amongſt the Priſoners brought from the Havanna by Captain Rumſey, was Major Parke Pepper, who was taken by two Spaniſh Men of War in his Paſſage home in a Dutch Ship from Rotterdam. This is the Gentleman who, at his own Expence, ſollicited for, and procur'd the Diſcharge of the Palatines and Iriſh who had been Priſoners at Havanna for two Years and had not otherwiſe been brought away; for which he laſt Week received the Thanks of the Governor in Council.

Laſt Thurſday arriv'd here Capt. Paterſon in 10 Weeks from London, in whom came Paſſenger James Ferenzko, Baron De Liechtenfeldt, a Hungarian Lieutenant of Huſſars.

On Monday laſt Mr. Chriſtopher Gadſden, Purſer of his Majeſty's Ship Aldborough, was married to Miſs Jane Godfrey, an agreeable young Lady, of diſtinguiſhable Merit, with a good Fortune. And on Wedneſday Mr. Jemmitt Cobby, to Miſs Hellen Wright. Alſo on Thurſday, William Cattell, jun. Eſq; to Miſs Anne Fraſer. And we hear, that ſeveral other conſiderable Matches will take Place in a ſhort Time.
